LIABILITY LAW

240 Weeks' Pay-Sued for $10,000.

The first suit brought to test the value of the Employers' Lability to-day that she believed the law, which went into effect on July of the slain woman recently 1, was filed in the Supreme Court in the Mohawk River was that here to-day when Albert Kaufman Miss Abvolina Merwige of Schen- sued Henry B. Singer for the loss of mdy. Mrs. Smith first described a hand. The so-called Employers' soppearance of Miss Merwige and Liability act sets the compensation at seppearance of Miss Merwige and Liability act sets the configuration of that in identified the remains that have weeks salary, less one-third of that total. Kaufman however, asks for Signature of Carth Illichted

The injury upon which Kaufman bases his suit was received, the complaint states, on April 14, and the question will arise whether the law revers to accidents that happened SAVE THE PIECES prior to July 1. Also the question as to whether Kaufman's hand is worth more to him than the compensation allotted by the statute.

Kaufman was employed by Singer in the latter's factory at No. 273 Van Sinderen avenue, Brooklyn, on machinery that turned out window No delay by the Ehrlich way. mouldings and sash casements. A partial list of the compensation set by the new law on loss of limb is as follows: Hand, 240 weeks; arm, 312 weeks; foot, 205 weeks; eye, 128 weeks; thum 60 weeks. The fingers range from 60 down to 15 weeks' salary, with one third of the total deducted. The old excuses of contributory negligence and the fellow servant theory of contributory negligence is no defense to set up under the new law, according to lawyers familiar

MOTORIST TAKES APPEAL AND WINS TEST CASE

Lawyer Says There Is Always Danger of Arrest by Policeman Anxious to Make Record.

Silas Blake Axtell, a lawyer at No. Broadway, who lives at No. 18 East Vinetieth street, was acquitted to-day after he had made a test case of his arrest for automobile speeding and ad carried it, on appeal, to the Court General Sessions. A jury before ludge Crain took less than ten minutes to decide that Axtell had been convicted wrongfully. Then he de-

Mr. Axtell was arrested in Fifth avenue on the evening of May 6 after Bicycle Policeman Rickert had followed him from Eughteenth street to Twenty-first street. Rickert testifled before Magistrate Levy in the Yorkville Police Court that Mr. Axtell had been making twenty-five miles an hour and that he had timed him with a stop watch. Mr. Axtell, his wife Margaret and Frederick R. Graves, a friend, all testified that the car had not been going more than eighteen miles an hour, Mrs. Axtell Mr. Frank Keenan, Chick Sale saying she was on the front seat and Lasky's Aurora of Light, Cameron & O'Connor other saying she was on the front seat and Fings Half-Masted at Funeral Norman Beach.

An unusual and uching neighborly expression of sympathy was the display in Woodhaven, L. I., yesterday after-noon of hundreds of American flags at half staff during the funeral of Norman Beach, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Beach of No. 1401 Ferris

Norman was drowned on a Sunday school outing at Long Beach last Thursday.

A committee of neighbors arranged the flag display by circularizing the community. The response to the request that the colors be displayed mourning position vas widespread. It addition upward of 1,000 residents of Woodhaven attended the funeral ser-
